Certification

I have reviewed the school manual (available on the school website at <http://www.cornerstonechristianacademy.us/enrollment-information.php>) and I have had an opportunity to ask questions related to it. Being aware of the expectations of the school and my responsibility to support them, I officially request that my child be enrolled in Cornerstone Christian Academy. I also give the school personnel, authority to enforce those expectations by means described in the manual or other means that are similar to those described. I also understand that this application will not be accepted without payment of the non-refundable $300 registration fee ($100 for additional children). I also agree to pay all tuition in a timely fashion. I agree to pay all penalties added to my account if I am late on tuition payments. I give CCA permission to send information about any tuition balance due, to future schools, should I withdraw my child from CCA without paying all tuition. I confirm that the information given above is true and complete, to the best of my knowledge. I understand that any false or misleading statements given will be grounds for immediate dismissal of my child.

<sup>1</sup> Tuition discounts apply only to the tuition amount listed in column A of the tuition schedule. Fundraising fees are not discounted.

<sup>2</sup> Monthly payments through FACTS will be considered the default payment option if advance payment is not selected at the time of registration. Each month the family would be billed for 1/10th of the total tuition and fees listed in column D of the tuition schedule.

Fundraising Policy

Along with the fixed tuition, families also pay the reimbursable *fundraising fee listed in column B of the preceding tuition schedule. Many of our families recover at least a portion of their fundraising fee.

Each family pays the applicable fundraising fee throughout the year as part of the tuition. Families participating in the various fundraisers receive a percentage of their fundraising efforts toward the fee (e.g., 50% of candy bar gross sales). Provided a family's tuition is paid in full, including the fundraising fee, the family's share of their fundraising efforts, up to the amount of the fee, will be offered to the family as a reimbursement of the fundraising fee. It also can be donated, as a whole or in part, back to the school. Any fundraising credits exceeding a family's fundraising fee will go entirely to the school.

Credits to future years' tuition, refunds, and donations are processed at the end of each school year.

Example 1:

The Doe family paid $1,700 for their family's fundraising fee. They sold $1,000 worth of candy bars, and they were credited 50% of their sales toward their fundraising fee ($500). They also raised $5,000 in golf-a-thon sponsorships, which were credited at 80% toward their fundraising fee ($4,000). Because their tuition was paid in full, including the fundraising fee, they were eligible to receive a $1,700 reimbursement. The fundraising credits in excess of their fee directly benefitted the school, which helps to keep tuition low for all students.

Example 2:

The Jones family paid $1,700 for their family's fundraising fee as well. They sold $100 worth of candy bars, and they were credited 50% of their sales toward their fundraising fee ($50). They also raised $1,500 in golf-a-thon sponsorships, which were credited at 80% toward their fundraising fee ($1,200). Because their tuition was paid in full, including the fundraising fee, they were eligible to receive a $1,250 reimbursement.

Annual Statements

At the end of the year each family will receive a statement of how much they raised toward their target net profit, ($1100 for one student, $1700 for two students, etc.). At that time each family decides between the following three options:

1. Receive the reimbursement in full.
2. Donate part, or all, of the reimbursable amount to the school.
3. Apply part, or all, of the money to their unpaid tuition balance, including future years' tuition.

Your fundraising efforts directly benefit your own family's overall enrollment costs, however all families have the option not to participate in each fundraiser.

Truth. Courage. Integrity.

HOMWORK POLICY

We anticipate that each student in grades 7 - 12 will need to spend a minimum of one hour each night on homework and study. It is our suggestion that each family set aside a specific time each night during which the student will complete any specific assignments and then spend the balance of the hour re-reading from texts, reviewing text questions, studying past tests and quizzes, making and using information flash cards, etc. (studying!)

The homework assigned to the students will be posted on QuickSchools on a daily basis. For many students, knowing that parents look at the assigned work on a daily basis will increase the likelihood that homework is complete. This will also keep you, the parents, up to date on how your child is doing on his homework. Another purpose for this is to be sure that students are not waiting for the bus ride in to school to complete their work. That time does not tend to be very effective for real study.

We have revised our homework policy to allow for the rare times when students genuinely cannot get their homework completed. If you are notified that your child missed homework and you believe there is a legitimate, very infrequent, reason, please let the teacher know.

At the bottom of this page, each student must pledge to give his full effort to school, and to do assignments on time. As stated above, we recognize that circumstances may arise that prevent the completion of homework, but that these occasions must be very rare. Grace will be extended, but must not be abused. Just because grace may be given does not mean the students must use it!

I have read and understand the homework expectation. I realize that homework is a required part of my education and that I am responsible to do it.

CODE OF HONOR PLEDGE

In signing the Code of Honor, I fully recognize that Cornerstone Christian Academy, (CCA), was founded to be, and is committed to being, a Christian ministry that promotes a life-style of commitment to Jesus Christ of Nazareth as personal Savior and Lord. It is therefore, my personal commitment to be a person of integrity in attitude and behavior in upholding the standards of CCA. I recognize that my life will, for better or worse, represent the Academy to all who witness my lifestyle and actions. To this end I pledge:

1. to apply myself wholeheartedly to my intellectual pursuits and to use the full powers of my mind for the glory of God.
2. to grow in my spirit by nurturing my own relationship with God according to the teachings of His Word, the Bible.
3. to develop my body with sound health habits through the required physical education program and by participating in wholesome physical activities.
4. to cultivate good relationships, socially, and to seek to love others as I love myself. I will not lie, I will not steal, I will not curse nor swear and I will not be a talebearer. When I have a dispute with any other person, I will follow the Lord's teaching in Matthew 18:15, to restore a right relationship with that person. I will not draw others into disputes I have with a person. I will keep the issues between myself and that person, not trying to get others to side with me. If I need help resolving an issue with another person, I will seek the help of a teacher or other adult.
5. to keep my total being under subjection from all immoral and illegal acts and habits, whether on or off campus. To this end, I will not use any illegal drugs or any tobacco products. I will not be involved in any sexual activities nor be part of discussions of such things, including heterosexual and homosexual topics. I will not use alcohol or engage in any other behavior which is contrary to the expectations stated in the Bible or the school manual.
6. to guard my tongue from any ungodly conversation and to make every effort to speak with peace, calm and truth at all times.
7. to maintain an openness to God's claims on my life and to do my utmost to know and follow His will for my life.
8. to attend all classes, all required chapel services, on and off campus, and to attend the house of worship of my choice, wherever God is honored and exalted.
9. to abide by the rules and regulations which may, from time to time, be adopted by the school administration. I understand that CCA is a private school and that I have no rights in the governing of the school. I accept my attendance at CCA as a privilege, not as a right, and understand that the school reserves the right to require the withdrawal of any student, at any time, if, in the judgment of the administration, such action is deemed necessary to safeguard CCA's ideals of scholarship or the spiritual and moral atmosphere as a Christian high school.

This page addressed your pledge for future behavior. The following pages deal with recent or current behavior. We have found that, often, during the interview for school we are not given information that will help us in our task of teaching. In order to best meet the needs of our students, we need to know about the student's behavior, choices and character. In order to meet this need, we require honest, complete answers to all of the following questions. We realize that you may have changed your thoughts recently and that some behaviors may have changed. Nevertheless, the completion of these questions will help us assess your needs. As a caution, should we, at any time, discover that you have been less than completely truthful with your answers, you may be subject to immediate dismissal from school.

All of our expectations include your time in school, at home, and out with friends. It is unacceptable to compartmentalize your Christianity to Christian settings alone. We can, and will uphold our standards for students inside and outside of school. If you engage in inappropriate behavior outside of school, we can and will hold you accountable and issue appropriate discipline as your behavior affects other students, the school atmosphere and the reputation of the school.

Please answer all of the following questions honestly. Failure to answer them or giving false answers may result in dismissal from Cornerstone Christian Academy.
